

CRYING OUT IN THE RAIN

Now it is over, paradise is gone.
How will my life go on?
The wings of love are broken,
so many words unspoken.
I don't know what to do.

Don't go away, I want you to stay (you to stay)
Please baby, have mercy on my soul

I'm crying out in the rain
I'm crying out in the rain

My cry of love is cutting through the night.
It's killing me inside.
No one can take your place,
You're my girl with the angel face.
My One and only

Don't go away, I want you to stay (you to stay)
Please baby, you're a part of me

I'm crying out in the rain
I'm crying out in the rain

Now there's no sun, just coldness and dark
Who helps me searching for a little spark ?

Solo

I'm crying out in the rain
I'm crying out in the rain
I'm crying out in the rain
I'm crying out in the rain
