

RUNNING THROUGH THE NIGHT

I look in the mirror, tears running down my face
I see all the pain inside, that scars my face
A lonely broken man, without any chance
Only isolation, no place for romance

Mysterious voices, unholy creatures
Out of the darkness, out of the night
Into the light

Running through the night
No place to hide
Walking away all alone
Searching for a light
Running through the night

My heart broke into pieces, destroyed another time
Lost in the shadows, the fear of the dark
Heaven or hell, oh I can't decide, no no
The raven calls my name

Mysterious voices, unholy creatures
Out of the darkness, out of the night
Into the light

Chorus
Solo

2x

Running through the night
No place to hide
Walking away all alone
Searching for a light
Running through the night
Tonight

2x

Running, running, no more hiding
No place for me like home
Searching for the night
Running through the night
